

My wife and I are very happy that Mike Karickhoff is running for District 30 Representative and believe that he has made the right decision to seek this position. It's so important for the State of Indiana to have a person like Mike representing us, with strong leadership ethics that seem to be missing in current governments of today.

I've known Mike for over 25 years and I can't say enough about his dedication to his family when times were rough, his work ethics, honesty and his leadership qualities. Mike has come a long way since he came to Kokomo and it's time that we get behind him again with our support to insure a better Indiana.

What my wife and I like about Mike: he is service oriented, community minded, has a positive attitude and a no-nonsense approach to achieving goals that is not always popular with his adversaries. For these reasons we're supporting Mike in the coming elections.
